Thinking of things, how can I not think of the people who have shared all my memories with me . . . the friends who helped make the good times seem better and the hard times less lonely.

ADVERTISEMENTS

I remember the first days of school . . .
seeing old friends,
making new ones;
and I remember that special first time when I discovered that a teacher can be one of the more understanding friends
I could have.
I remember our class of '71
in its infant freshman year . . .
how over-powering
that number 1971
seemed then to us . . .
but moving through biology classes and football games and term papers it came closer and closer until we could reach out and hold it.

We were a class of many individuals, all with different interests and different ways of doing things.
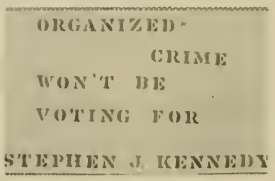
Together we could have moved the earth
if we wanted,
but we settled for just the dress code.



We brought down
some old traditions,
and established a few new ones
in their place . . .
but isn't life just that,
change?

MRS. PHILIP W. RILEY

The Tiot staff and the class of 1971 are pleased to dedicate this year's edition of the Tiot to Mrs. Florence Riley. Over the years, Mrs. Riley's guidance has given the Tiot a quality and character which have made it a distinctive yearbook. We wish Mrs. Riley many years of happiness.

What we will remember most from our four years at Norwood High will not be theorems, formulas, and that which we have learned from books but the people who taught these things to us.

"SECOND TIME AROUND"

In September, 1968, the Class af 1971 returned as Saphamares ta N.H.S. with nanchalant ease, praudly aware af the fact that they were na langer the yaungest class an "the Hill." They were prepared ta face the new and greater respansibilities and challenges which canfranted them.

The autcame af the electian af class afficers was, far the mast part, the same as last year's. The exceptians were the electian af Ellen Danavan as Secretary and Eileen Craak as Girls' A.A. Representative. Thase wha were re-elected were: Paul Hartnett, President; Steve Kennedy, Vice-President; Jayce Gallagher, Girls' Treasurer; Cameran Kelley, Bays' Treasurer; and Patrick McQuillan, Bays' A.A. Representative.

The Saphamare Party, the first sacial event, was extremely successful. The theme was "Purple Haze" and the music was pravided by the papular "Backstreet Jaurnal." It was held in the girls' gymnasium which was smashingly decarated by aver ane hundred Saphamare students. It was a very exciting and satisfying evening.

Outstanding members af the Class were: Eileen Craak, wha was the anly Saphamare selected ta the varsity cheerleading squad; Paul Hartnett, wha shawed his tremendaus athletic ability while campeting an the varsity faatball and basketball teams; the faatball team was alsa well-supparted by saphamares Rabert Dickensan, and Pat McQuillan and the basketball team by Jaseph Parcella and Richard Saper. Philip Nalfi, Jahn Cliffard and Rabert Tharntan helped ta carry the hackey team thraugh anather fantastically successful seasan.

With the knawledge and experience gained during the first twa years at Narwaad Seniar High, the distinguished Class af '71 was ready ta return ta "the Hill" as upperclassmen.

"ONWARD, UPWARD, AND ALMOST THERE!"

The gap was clasing and aur goal was in sight! The undaunted class af '71 had embarked an its next ta last schalastic year.

The electian af afficers was aur first majar concern. After a very heated campaign, Steve Kennedy narrawly defeated veteran Paul Hartnett far the Presidency, in an electian in which every member of aur class anxiausly awaited the results. Other new afficers were Vice-President, Chris Macauley; Girls' Treasurer, Chris Pucci; and Girls' A.A. Representative, Hellas Assad. Those wha were re-elected were: Secretary, Ellen Danavan; Boys' A.A. Representative, Pat McQuillan.

There were many Juniar bays wha played well far the varsity athletic teams. Bab Tharntan, Phil Nalfi, and Jackie Cliffard cantributed ta the success af the hackey team. Jae Parcella, Rick Saper, Chris Macauley, Joe Jahnson, and Captain Paul Hartnett were the backbane af the basketball team. Pat McQuillan, Cameran Kelley, Paul Hartnett, and Bab Dickensan were amang the autstanding faatball players.

Continually displaying their energy and talents were the Juniar cheerleaders: Eileen Craak and Mary Rizza, the latter in her first year on the squad.

Twenty-five juniars qualified far the Natianal Hanar Saciety. Twa juniars were chasen as semifinalists in the Fareign Exchange Program, Patty MacInnis and Nancy Blaisdell. Patty finally wan the appartunity to spend the summer in Belgium.

Spring heralded the arrival af the annual Juniar Pram which was held at the Matel 128, an May 8th and proved ta be very successful.

Finally a year filled with hard wark, merriment, and surprises came ta an end.

"A Yer, of Firsts"

OUR SENIOR HISTORY

In September we seniars returned ta N.H.S., knowing thot it wauld nat be for o long time, but a good time. We were also ready to accept the foct that we, os seniors, would be the leaders of the student body. But first we had ta elect the leoders of aur closs. The electian af the some slate of officers os last year canfirmed aur chaices as juniors. We vated Steve Kennedy, President; Chris Macauloy, Vice-President; Ellen Donavan, Secretory; Comeran Kelley and Chris Pucci, Treosurers; and Pat McQuillon ond Hellas Assad A.A. Representotives.

Gonzala Ostrio, aur exchonge student from Bolivio, has certainly been o great oddition to our closs. His candidness and "motter of foct" ottitude showed thot he hod no difficulties in odjusting to our longuoge ond way of life. "Gonzo" stayed with Potty Rizzo's fomily while he was in Norwood.

In October, we continued the troditian af previous classes by conquering Blue Hill ond honging the bonner at the top. We then presented the 3rd annual Senior Auctian, an event at which many seniors were auctianed aff ta underclossmen. They hod to carry their baoks, buy their lunches, ond take their "mosters" ta the dance thot night. There was mare money eorned, and more excitement generoted in this yeor's auctian thon ever before.

On December 4th and 5th, our Senior Play, "You Can't Take It With You," was presented under the direction of Mr. Alan Wagg. Many seniors participated in this production. The leading performers were Billy Stevens, Guy Cisternelli, Nancy Davis, Peter Farioli, Cheryl McQuire, Betty McIntosh, and Bob Doucette. This was, without a doubt, one of the most successful productions ever at Norwood High.

This year's HILLTOPPER has certainly made its impression on the school. It has been known for its somewhat controversial articles. Editors-in-Chief were Mary Pat Curran and Eileen McAvoy. Mr. Davis contributed his time, talents and energies while serving as faculty advisor.

The Student Council was ably led by President, David Boch; Vice-President, Mike Lowey; Secretary, Hellas Assad; and Treasurer Janice McDermott. Their major successes were the Senior Auction, the Globe Santa drive, and the Student Council Carnival.

This has undoubtedly been the most successful and rewarding year for the senior athletes. The football team, captained by Chris Macaulay and Pat McQuillan, and supported by Bob Dickenson, Cameron Kelley, Paul Hartnett, Jimmy Murphy, Mike Piccirili, Scott Hutchens, and Scott Williams, posted a respectable record. The triumph over Dedham on Thanksgiving was the highlight of the season.

Our basketball team had its most successful season ever, posting a 14-4 record and finishing third. This was good enough to qualify for the Tech Tourney in which the team reached the quarter-finals. The top seniors on the team were Co-Capts. Paul Hartnett and Joe Porcello; Joe Johnson, Rick Soper, Chris Macaulay, and last but not least, Dick Erdman. Mr. Nolet, who was voted the most outstanding coach in the league, was one of the determining factors in the team's success. He was able to withstand all the crazy antics of this year's team, which he termed "his insanest squad ever."

The hockey team reached a new plateau this season, displaying an unblemished 16-0-2 first place record. This is the first time a Norwood team has finished its regular season's play undefeated. Tri-Capts. Bob Thornton, Phil Nolfi, and Jack Clifford led fellow seniors Bob Rosata, Ted Curtis, Bill Sullivan and John Lawrie throughout its fantastic season. Also selected as most outstanding coach was Mr. Wheeler to whom we are all grateful for his "never give up" attitude. In the tourney Norwood had a 4-1 record, their only loss being to Arlington in the Final by a score of 3-0.

This year's wrestling team rose to due prominence as it finished the season as co-champs in its league. Gary Sheehan, John Reynolds, and John Moynihan were Tri-Capts. under coaches Compagnone and Hexter. Gordon Smith won the State Championship for his performance in the State Meet.

All of these teams were supported by senior cheerleaders, Mary Rizzo, Chris Pucci, and Capt. Eileen Crook. The cheerleaders also won the annual Bay State League Cheering Competition at Needham for the first time ever.

On May 29th, the Marriott Hotel came alive with the excitement of the much-awaited Senior Prom. It was a fitting close to a year of many and great social events.

June's here and our high school days are over. But most of us will agree that they were days we will never forget. Days of learning, days of fun; days of success, days of failure; days of triumph, days of defeat; and most important of all June 6th, 1971, Graduation Day.

The Role of Sophomores

Seated: Richard Kennedy, Ellen Lavell.
Standing: Mark Sias, Nancy Kelley, Rager MaClead, Kathy Ryan, Dave Ahearn.

In September of 1970 we eagerly accepted the rale of sophamares. This year marked the first time in years that the entering class arrived as sophomores. Althaugh we were a year older and shauld have been a bit wiser, we had a great deal af difficulty in finding classraams and carrect stairways, a fact which was quite evident to our sympathetic (?) upperclassmen.

Our first impartant event as saphamares found us electing the fallawing class afficers: President, Roger MaCleod; Vice-President, Dave Ahearn; Treasurers, Kathy Ryan and Richard Kennedy; Secretary, Nancy Kelley; Girls' A.A., Ellen Lavell; Bays' A.A., Mark Sias.

The sophamare class was well-supparted when Ellen Lovell, Daryl Dennisan, and Jane Hartnett were chasen for the cheerleading squad. The class af "73" had much ta cheer about when the varsity faatball team included saphamares Rager MaClead, Billy Bensan, Keith Ragers, Mike Raberts and Steven Brennan.

Mark Hersey and John Glynn were saphamares wha met the requirements far the N. H. S. basketball team.

Our first year at N. H. S. was an exciting and unfargettable experience. We think the class af 1973 made quite an impact an the schaal in 1970-1971, and we laak farward with anticipatian ta aur Juniar Year.

Confident Juniors

L. to R.: Kenneth Cavanaugh, Gary Danavan, Janice Bacan, Gail Flaherty, Mary McTernan, Gearge Abraham, and Barry Sullivan.

Once again on an eorly September day we, the Closs of "1972," entered Norwood High Schaal with o new confidence and ease ta fulfill aur rales os "upperclassmen."

The electian af aur class officers was aur first mojor concern far this year. Newly elected were Barry Sullivon, President; Gearge Abraham, Vice-President; Kenneth Cavanough, Bays' A.A. Representative. Re-elected were Gail Flaherty, Secretary; Jonice Bocon ond Gary Danavan, Treosurers; and Mary McTernan, Girls' A.A. Representative.

Many juniars porticipoted in both Varsity and Junior Varsity sparts. The teams were led by many autstanding juniors: in faatboll, Barry Sullivan, Jae Annella; in hockey, Peter Brawn, Mike Martin; in bosketboll, Bob Magee, Mork Linehon; in field hockey, Betty Corlson; ond in girls' bosketboll, Jaon Pholen.

The Varsity cheerleaders, Mary McTernan, Jaanne Thamas, Marie DeRama, Kathy Potsas, Janice Bacan and Paula Parise, with their enthusiasm and suppart cheered the teams inta victary and success.

Finally spring arrived and braught with it the long-owoited Juniar Prom. It succeeded in fulfilling everyone's anticipoted excitement af the night.

As aur third year come ta a close, we oll laaked forword with mixed emotions to our finol but very impartont yeor at the schaal an "the Hill."

Student Council Continues to Be Active

Under the direction of Mr. Usevich, the Student Council continued to be an active functioning body at N.H.S.

We began our year by holding the dynamic Senior Auction, which was followed by a most successful dance. During the fall and winter seasons, we enthusiastically donated to two very worthy causes: Globe Santa and the newly instituted "Pulse" Organization.

The Student Council worked harmoniously with the faculty during the 1970-71 school year. Student Council members served, along with teachers, on the newly formed curriculum, school plant, and scheduling committees. Members also attended a convention where they discussed the effectiveness of an "Open Campus" system.

The spring season heralded the second successful carnival, an activity proving to be financially rewarding, as well as an enjoyable venture.

All in all, the Student Council had a most productive year under the leadership of the following officers: President, David Boch; Vice-President, Mike Lowey; Secretary, Hellas Assad; and Treasurer, Janice McDermott.

COUNCIL LEADERS: Dovid Boch, president; Mr. Usevich, advisor; Hellos Assad, secretory; Michael Lowey, vice-president. Missing: Jonice McDermott: treasurer.

Hilltopper Expands in Many Areas

With last year's financial gains as a foundation, the Hilltopper started out with a new and unusual advantage.

The Hilltopper decided to continue to patronize Mr. Clifford Pearl's Print Shop. Mr. Pearl turned out several fine printing jobs at little or no cost to the paper.

A new idea was put into practice this year with a separate Literary Supplement being produced, in addition to the regular issues. The faculty advisor, Mr. Paul Wilgoren, was aided by a fine staff of editors: Beverly Adamonis, Edward Mistler, and Miles Bowen, along with student advisor Sheila Rodman.

The Hilltopper staff, headed by our dedicated faculty advisor, Mr. Peter Davis, consisted of Eileen McAvoy and Mary Pat Curran as Co-Editors-in-chief; Sheila Rodman and Margorie Greene at News and Features; Beverly Adamonis, Literary; Chris Eibye, Art; while Joseph Fenton and Michael Ryan took over the Fun Page.

The main objective of this year's staff was to put out a newspaper which would be read and enjoyed by the Student Body. Judging from sales, the objective was fulfilled.

Senior Play

"You Can't Take It With You"

The annual Senior Play was presented on December 4th and 5th, 1970. An unusually large number of seniors took part in the production, not only by acting but also by working on scenery, make-up, props, and advertising. Although it was a difficult comedy to produce, "You Can't Take It With You" became a successful senior venture.

It has been said that the harder ane warks, the luckier one gets. This was nat the case in regard to the Narwaod High Faatball Team and its season. Without fear of contradictian, it can be said that no other team in the league worked harder preparing far the season than Narwaod did.

Beginning in March, mast of the team warked an their own in a valuntary weight-training program. This was a week af physical anguish as the team worked approximately six haurs a day in four sessians with the marning session beginning at 6:30 a.m. It was alsa a time when sixty peaple were fused together as a team with a single purpose. That purpase was to win the Bay State Title, one that we fell far shart of.

The loss to Braintree in aur apening game was a great disappointment ta the whale team and seemed to set the stage for the dismal season that lay ahead. It was a season of "almosts" for the Norwaod club. Overall, the team suffered six defeats with victories over Framingham Sauth, Needham and Dedham being our only cansolation.

It was a season that defied analysis by all concerned. All the caaches and players deserved a better fate. Those who were an the team were proud af it and proud of being a part of it.

The members of the Class of 1971 wauld like to express their thanks to Mr. Gulla and his assistants far their efforts and to wish the Class af 1972 a better fate than was ours.

Talent. Work. Desire. Put these ingredients together, ond you hove the recipe of o successful bosketboll teom. Cooch Ken Nolet wos blessed with eoch of these, but no recipe will mix without o greot chef. Sixteen bosketboll ployers will ogree, in unison, thot there isn't o greoter connoisseur of bosketboll knowledge thon the Norwood mentor.

Norwood finished third in the Boy Stote Leogue with o very respectful ond impressive 14-4 record. They were led by two very copoble young men. Co-coptoins Poul Hortnett and Joe Porcello were probobly the most competitive bollployers in the leogue. Hortnett, known for his defense, wos o foirly occurote shooter from the outside ond seldom mode mistokes. Undoubtedly there will be better guords thon Norwood's Joe Porcello, but his ability of the gome will never be outshone. For possibly five yeors the school hos not seen such on offensive threot os oll-stor Joe Johnson. This kid hos the moves to moke it big.

Unherolded perfectly describes Chris Mocouley ond oll-stor Rick Soper. Mocouley is o ruffion on the court ond his tenocious ploy hos eorned the respect of his opponents. Under pressure, Rick Soper is one of the best shooters in the loop, if not the best. His shooting delicocy ond polished form ore incomporoble.

Senior Dick Erdmon wos olwoys reody to enter ony gome, ony situotion, gome ofter gome, whenever his teommotes were in foul trouble, ond he did exceptionolly well. Ed Coughlin, Comeron Kelley, Pot Kewrigo, ond Pot McQuillon were the nomods of the bench. These students of the gome proctice, ond proctice, ond proctice. These othletes rorely ploy ond they moy be students, but by no meons ore they novice bosketboll ployers. Leoping is Jim McHugh's forte. This lefty didn't see much oction but wos on asset to his teom.

Next yeor's outcome will rest on the shoulders of dynomic Bob McGhee, Mork Linehan, Bob Bernstein ond sophomore John Glynn.

It's been o bonner yeor for the Mustongs, quolifying for the Tech Tourney ond reoching the quorter-finols. Picked by the cooches throughout the leogue to be o mediocre teom, the Mustongs fought oll obstocles ond showed no mercy to their opponents.

Mr. Nolet ond his bollployers must be commended for o job well done. They've mode our school proud, which is port of the Norwood tradition.

Boys' Gymnastics

In gymnastics, there are six events: free exercise, side harse, high bar, parallel bars, lang harse vaulting, and rings. Each event requires an extreme mastery in timing, coordination, and inner strength. Competitars are mainly judged by the preciseness and grace with which they perform. If all judges fallawed this line af ruling, instead of judging difficulty, Norwood would have had a mare victorious season. The underclassmen showed a tremendous amaunt af promise, and they will make up for the lass of this season's fabulous seniars next year.

"We're Number One"

This cry thundered through the rinks of the Boy Stote Leogue oll yeor os the pucksters reolly impressed their followers, ending the regular seoson play with on unblemished 16-0-2 recard and the sole ownership of the 1970-1971 Boy Stote Title. Statistics told the tale ot the finish, 98 gaols for, with only 12 agoinst.

In the coge for the Mustongs wos Junior Bill Pieri who compiled o .67 gaols ogoinst overoge. He was obly bocked up by Juniar Lou Porker, wha saw oction in a few gomes, ond Sophomare Fred Carbane.

The shots an net totals shaw the fine defense led by senior tri-copt. Bab Thornton wha was vated, deservedly, the league's MVP and olso selected to the first all-stor teom. Seniors Ted Curtis ond Jahn Lowrie played consistently well oll seasan and were o great osset to the team. Juniar Pete Brown converted back ta his familiar defense spot. Pete was a secand teom oll-star ot his defensive position. Other defensemen who should see actian in the future are Juniar Al Skene ond Saphamares, Bob Lowrie ond Kev Hurley.

Goals win gomes, and Seniar left wing Phil Nalfi got 31 ta eclipse the record of the great Richie Hebner. Tri-capt. Nalfi ended up second in the scoring race behind Mike Mortin. Phil wos o unanimous chaice for oll-stor ond will na daubtedly go dawn os one af Norwood's greatest.

Senior center Jock Clifford, tri-copt., ond wing Bob Rosoto came through with mony key gools ond assists over the year to moke themselves involuable to the Wheelermen. Senior Bill Sullivan reolly came through in the speciolties department os he killed many penolties with his hustle in the carners.

Mike Martin ond Bill Clifford completed the Nolfi line. They were by far the highest scoring trio in the leogue. Mortin led oll scarers with 52 points, and Clifford ended up in the top ten, alsa. Martin wos named to the first oll-stor teom.

Juniar Eddie King was the centermon an the J. Clifford-Rosota line ond set up his two wings oll yeor long far key gools, os well as chipping in with mony himself.

Juniars Dan Reddick and Bill Denehy sow oction an the third line os did saphomore Mark Bolerna. Junior Gory Danavan hod ta leave the team holfwoy thraugh the yeor due to an injury.

Caoches Wheeler and Arvidsan hove to be given o lat af credit as they led the teom through the first undefeoted year in 30 yeors. They were instrumentol in each victory by getting the team to o mental ond physicol peak before each gome. Entering the tourney, the Mustangs were seeded high ond represented their schaal in its utmast hockey tradition.

TIOT

The 1971 TIOT staff hopes that it has produced a yearbook which reflects the mood and atmosphere of Norwood Senior High School and of its students and faculty. This year we have tried to emphasize the individual, as well as the groups which make up our school.

We wish to express our thanks to all friends who have supported the TIOT this year. We especially want to thank Purdy Studios of Boston, which provided us with our photography, and Mr. Bill Rowan of Taylor Publishing of Dallas, who helped us develop the new format for our book.

To Mr. Fader, our financial advisor, and Miss Ey, our creative advisor, and the real "fireball" of the staff, we owe our uncertain gratitude.

I remember the lazy days of dreaming
in class, being maybe 150
miles away from Norwood.
And the other days when I got so involved in a class discussion
that there was no place else in the world,
and I really hated hearing the two-thirty bell . . .

. . . and the things I've done with a little help from my friends
make me smile,
as we move on together:
each pursuing his own individual way.
Now the two-thirty bell has rung
a last time
for the class of 1971.
